

Greetings,

With several Sunday school classes getting started up, we are adjusting the class schedule. We'll try this schedule and see how it goes:

At 9:45 a.m. Sunday school class begins (or earlier if the class chooses).

The first bell will ring at 10:15 a.m. to signify the end of class and the beginning of a 5 minute period to move to the sanctuary.

At 10:20 a second bell will ring to signify the beginning of a prayer request/announcement time in the sanctuary. The worship service will begin at approximately 10:30 a.m. and end about 11:00 a.m.

You are being asked to enter and exit Sunday school and worship through the breezeway only.

Four classes are currently scheduled to meet:

Children/Youth class in the basement.

Adults in Fellowship class in the fellowship hall

Adult Women class in the right half of the old fellowship hall

The Sunday school class in the sanctuary is being phased out for now. You are welcome to attend one of the above classes as we continue to make temporary adjustments in how we do things.

Class teachers or leaders, please write down your class name and the number attending and place that information just outside the door to your room. I will come around and pick it up about 10:00 a.m. Offerings will only be received in the offering plate located in the sanctuary or may be mailed to Linda Currin.

Currently, the attendance posted on the board in the sanctuary is the worship attendance from the previous Sunday. Sunday school attendance records will be maintained in the Sunday School Director's office.

Please feel free to make suggestions as we figure out a different way of doing things.

Steve Bowman, Assistant Sunday School Director
