“In God’s hands, our acts of grace toward those who’ve wronged us often result in a blessing to us.”
From Our Daily Bread December 27, 2024

Tuesday, February 18, 2:00 – 7:00, Tabbs Creek Baptist Church is hosting a blood drive fundraiser through The Blood Connection that will benefit Families Living Violence Free (FLVF). For every donor, $10.00 will be given to FLVF while the donor themselves will receive a $30.00 e-card to spend as they wish. To sign up, go to the Tabbs Creek Facebook page & scan the QR code or contact me & I will help you sign up. Not only will you share the gift of life-giving blood, funds will be raised for FLVF.

Families Living Violence Free also has a wish list, an abbreviated version of which I will share in this newsletter, with the full list attached. Basic Hygiene Supplies: Toothbrushes and toothpaste, Deodorant (gender-neutral and various types), Shampoo, conditioner, and body wash (unscented options for sensitive skin), Razors and shaving cream, Feminine hygiene products (pads, tampons), Hair care products (including products for different hair types, such as ethnic curly or textured hair), Nail clippers and files, Lotion and moisturizers (sensitive-skin friendly) Contact info: Amy Langston M.Ed.

Children’s Missions Day will be held at New Horizons Baptist Church on February 22nd, 9:00-12:00 and focuses on children in grades 1 – 6. The missionary speaker will be Rev. William Wheeler and he will speak about Operation Christmas Child. Children will put together sewing kits for the older girl’s boxes in the Missions Center. Lunch will be served. Admission is $2.00 and canned goods for ACIM. Headcount is due by February 17, Winfree Keranakis, 919-691-3831. Come join us as we learn about and do missions!

Ann Riley is the new director for ACIM and she is doing a fantastic job! She can use volunteers during their regular hours of Monday, Wednesday, Friday 9:00-12:00 as well as after hours Tuesday and Thursday evening beginning at 5:30. Evening hours are spent packing food boxes which are distributed the following day. Check with her and see where you or your church can best serve. Her number is 919-730-8021.

Needed - CCM volunteers. Once again, I am in need of a volunteer cashier for the thrift store. Volunteers are also needed to sort donations, unload donations from donor’s vehicles, price donations, place priced donations on shelves, refold clothing etc. Come and give the gift of your time even if it is only for an hour. Come when it is convenient for you: Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday 9:00-12:00, Wednesday 9:00 – 3:00.
